

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

DEPUTY DIRECTOR
FOR MANAGEMENT

January 27, 2005

To All Federal Employees:

I encourage you to visit the www.Results.gov website for the latest information on all that you and your departments and agencies are doing to maximize results with the help of the President's Management Agenda.

- Most Successful: Energy, Labor, State & Social Security
<http://www.whitehouse.gov/results/agenda/energylabor200501.html>
- Federal Agencies Achieving New Management Milestones
http://www.whitehouse.gov/results/agenda/johnson_update12-04.html
- Latest Competitive Sourcing Report for FY 04 – a summary of the results achieved from agencies' use of public-private competition in FY 2004. It provides aggregate data on the number of competitions conducted, the incremental costs of competition, and projected savings. The report also discusses emerging trends by comparing FY 04 results to FY 03 results.
http://www.whitehouse.gov/results/agenda/cs_2004_report_rev5a2_doc.pdf
- The FY05 Q1 Management Scorecard -- an update of which agencies are performing best on the President's Management Agenda.
<http://www.whitehouse.gov/results/agenda/scorecard.html>
- The general status of each initiative of the President's Management Agenda.
<http://www.whitehouse.gov/results/agenda/fiveinitatives.html>

In addition, I encourage you to review the attached press release that we provided to members of the press when we discussed with them our successes as well as what we hope to achieve in the coming year. In particular, we discussed proposals to enact government-wide personnel reform, a Sunset Commission and Results Commissions.

Please be sure to share these updates with your associates.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Clay Johnson III".

Clay Johnson III
Deputy Director for Management